

ABOUT US

We are an Abergavenny based scaffolding company operating throughout the UK with years of experience. We specialize in tubular scaffolding for industrial and commercial companies operating anywhere in the UK, so your company does not need to source scaffolding contractors for different areas. All scaffolding is inspected by our managers ensuring maximum safety. Our scaffolding can also be designed to meet the customers' needs.

In order to ensure our reputation as one of the premier scaffolding companies continues, we consider stability for our workforce important. Therefore, we directly employ all of our labour force and continually train apprentices, to maintain a premier standard of workmanship.

The National Operatic and Dramatic Association (NODA), founded in 1899, is the main representative body for amateur theatre in the UK. It has a membership of some 2500 amateur/community theatre groups and 3000 individual enthusiasts throughout the UK, staging musicals, operas, plays, concerts and pantomimes in a wide variety of performing venues, ranging from the country's leading professional theatres to village halls. Members have access to a wide range of benefits.

Peterborough, with a knowledgeable and friendly staff able to deal with virtually any enquiry relating to amateur theatre.

There is a broad spectrum of ages involved with amateur theatre nationwide, from a burgeoning number of youth groups to adult companies, which meet the needs of all levels of both performers, whether dramatic or musical, and enthusiasts involved backstage, front of house or in administration.

NODA is divided into eleven national Regions, each headed by an Region Councillor who sits on the Council (the ruling body of the Association), supported by a network of Regional Representatives and other volunteers. These volunteers are the vital link to the grass roots of the Association, the amateur theatre companies themselves. The Association is administered from its Headquarters in

NODA AIMS

- To give a shared voice to the amateur theatre sector.
- To help amateur societies and individuals achieve the highest standards of best practice and performance.
- To provide leadership and advice to enable the amateur theatre sector to tackle the challenges and opportunities of the 21st century

WHAT A GREAT NIGHT FOR APC

(Article taken from the Abergavenny Chronicle)

What is believed to be the oldest amateur pantomime company in Wales celebrated its 75th anniversary in style with a ball at the Lamb and Flag hotel recently.

Several members of the Abergavenny Pantomime Company were presented with Long Service NODA (National Operatic & Dramatic Association) Awards during the evening which finished on a high when they also received an award for coming first in the NODA Wales & West region for the best standard programme for 'Dick Whittington' 2006.

The company also made its television debut on 'BBC Wales Today' and also appeared on Radio Wales's Breakfast Show 'Good Morning Wales'. Several members of the company received NODA awards.

CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS

Here we go again another year another pantomime, this year its Sleeping Beauty a show that we have not done for many years, in fact it was last performed before they started dueling the heads of the valley road. You have to have a mission statement nowadays, ours will be 'to boldly go where no other panto has gone' (or for English teachers "to go boldly") there, that gives us some credibility.

Our band of minstrels and players are made up from many sections of the community, we have teachers, social workers, a bio chemist, a magistrate, nurses, care workers, a soldier and students. See if you can fit the person to the jobs.

Sadly we have to report the loss of our president Gilbert Fury. Gilbert was a gentleman of the first order, he was a true friend and an ambassador of Abergavenny Pantomime Company and will be greatly missed.

I hope you enjoy this evening's show and have a safe journey home, hopefully the Heads of the Valley road will be completed before Sleeping Beauty wakes up! Oh and finally, sorry kids there will be no sweets thrown out tonight, elf and safety regulations prevent us, but you can still throw them at us, don't you dare!

CAST NOTES

Peter Holder

— KING JOLLY —

After years of being the bad guy; a total personality change this year as I'm asked to be jolly! So no boos (save them for Dudley lampshade) and bear with me as I endeavor to do something I've not done before; be happy! Hope you all enjoy the show, and remember be JOLLY!

Emma Williams

— PRINCESS AURORA —

Hi guys!!! I'm 21 years old and I'm a singing and drama teacher. This is my third year in panto and I'm back as principle girl...hurrah!! Make sure you cheer loads for me and my handsome Prince and BOO really loudly for Deadly Nightshade. See you all out there!

Rohanne Norris

— WILLIAM —

Hello boys and girls, its my last year in panto this year and I'm playing William, the servant to the prince, so you might see me once or twice declaring my love for him, (don't forget I'm really a girl!). So cheer extra loud this year and boo even louder!!! Have a good one, Ro. x

Tracey Hales

— DEADLY NIGHTSHADE —

Hi my name is Tracey. I've only been with the pantomime company for 3 years. This is my first time in a principle part and my first time ever as a baddie. I promise to be as deadly as they come. So boooo as loud as you can when you see me on stage....BOOO!!!

Ken Jones

— NANNY FANNY —

Its time to get out the bloomers, tights and oversize bra again because its Panto time. This is the first time for me to do Sleeping Beauty although I'm not too happy with the character's name (hope it doesn't stick). As they say in the USA, have a nice show.

Chelsea Viveash

— VELCRO —

Hey, my name is Chelsea and this is my first principal part in panto. I will be playing Velcro! I've been in panto for 6 years. Velcro thinks she's too good for this panto...but we're stuck with her!! Ha Ha!! Love Cheslea. Ps. She loves Zippy really!

Andrea Marfell

— QUEEN MERRY —

Merry merry...Happy New Year!!! I've always played the Baroness but this year I've been elevated to playing the Queen. She's posh and nice, giggly and full of fun. Hope you enjoy the show. God save the Queen!

XXX

Molly Brickley-Clark

— FAIRY SNOWDROP —

Hi, I'm Molly and I'm really loving playing the fairy again this year. I've been in panto for 7 years now, and love singing and dancing ALL THE TIME!!!! I hope you enjoy all of our performances and go home happy and smiling, not sleeping like Beauty!! Byeeeeeee

Richard Poynter

— ZIPPER —

Hi everyone Zipper here, or my friends call me Richard. I want all of you to shout as loud as you can for me today! Can you do that??? Just a quick thank you to my friends and especially my family and my girlfriend for their continued support. Have fun everyone. See you out there!!!

Rob Peacock

— MR PRIMM —

This is my second year of doing panto and I've gone from posh to prim. I do love everything being prim and proper, everything has to be in order. I want you all to enjoy the pantomime and laugh when you should laugh.

Nicola Cantle

— PRINCE NICHOLAS —

I'm back after a break of three years in which I gained a 2:1 hon's degree in Sports Coaching. You may remember me from shows such as Robinson Crusoe, Peter Pan and Aladdin. I hope you enjoy it, this one last nostalgic year in the Company. Oh yes it is!!!

Aimee Mogford

— COMPOST —

Hey, I'm Aimee. This is my 10th year in panto and I've been demoted to a piece of dirt this year. Happy days. Hope you enjoy the show and eat lots of ice-cream!

Aimee
