BERNARD ZAVISHLOCK

Sadly we have to report the loss of one of our Life Members, Bernard Zavishlock. Bernard was a man dedicated to the Borough Theatre and for many years he put his technical expertise to work as the theatre's Technical Manager and worked with Abergavenny Pantomime Company and many other local amateur group as well as professional companies. Although known for his behind the scenes work as a Technician, Bernard in fact was not a member of APC, however in 2002 it was decided due to Bernard's long term recognition with APC, the Company awarded his services as a Life Member.

In 2007 Bernard kindly volunteered to be interviewed on 'BBC Wales Today' along with other members of APC as part of its 75th Anniversary Celebrations. Bernard also worked very closely with the Company in researching its long proud history and donated lots of old newspaper cutting and old show programmes. His knowledge of the Company's history was immense. He will be sadly missed by us all and he was a true ambassador of Abergavenny Pantomime Company.

NATIONAL OPERATIC AND DRAMATIC ASSOCIATION

Headquarters: NODA House, 58-60 Lincoln Road, Peterborough. PE1 2RZ

The National Operatic and Dramatic Association (NODA), founded in 1899, is the main representative body for amateur theatre in the UK. It has a membership of some 2500 amateur/community theatre groups and 3000 individual enthusiasts throughout the UK, staging musicals, operas, plays, concerts and pantomimes in a wide variety of performing venues, ranging from the country's leading professional theatres to village halls. Members have access to a wide range of benefits.

NODA is divided into eleven national Regions, each headed by an Region Councillor who sits on the Council (the ruling body of the Association), supported by a network of Regional Representatives and other volunteers. These volunteers are the vital link to the grass roots of the Association, the amateur theatre companies themselves. The Association is administered from its Headquarters in Peterborough, with a knowledgeable and friendly staff able to deal with virtually any enquiry relating to amateur theatre.

There is a broad spectrum of ages involved with amateur theatre nationwide, from a burgeoning number of youth groups to adult companies, which meet the needs of all levels of both performers, whether dramatic or musical, and enthusiasts involved backstage, front of house or in administration.

NODA AIMS

- To give a shared voice to the amateur theatre sector.
- To help amateur societies and individuals achieve the highest standards of best practice and performance.
- To provide leadership and advice to enable the amateur theatre sector to tackle the challenges and opportunities of the 21st century.

Puss in Boots

Half-term fun returns with this tale of feline frolics featuring a nasty ogre, a pauper, a princess, an entire army, stew, dumplings and (of course) our cunning puss! A traditional pantomime, purr-fect for all the family!

Chairman's Address

Here we go again, another year another pantomime, time flies (oh no it doesn't). This year it's Puss in Boots, the first time we have produced it for many years, and once again it is in the capable hands of Producer Stephen (Snowy) Clark and Choreographer and Musical Director Jaci Brickley Clark.

The emphasis is, as always, on the junior members of the cast, and it's always a delight to see them progress during rehearsals (yes we do rehearse). Recently one of our young members, Molly Brickley Clark, won the Abergavenny Xmas factor talent competition.

The Pantomime Company and Junior AAODS are what could be the only outlets left to show off the talents of the youngsters in the area if the Gwent Young Peoples Theatre disappears due to lack of funding, what a tragedy that would be.

Sadly we have lost one of the company's best friends and theatre stalwarts Bernard Zavishlock who passed away recently. Bernard fulfilled many functions in the theatre and was a driving force in achieving what it is today. Bernard was latterly the sound and lighting technician, he always knew what switches to throw (but not necessarily in the right order). Bernard appears in a BBC interview on our website if you care to log on. God bless Bernard, we will miss you.

Despite the nasty men increasing VAT Boo Hiss!! we have kept our ticket prices the same as previous years, so enjoy the show folks and have a safe journey home

Ken Jones (Chairman)

The story of Puss in Boots

This very popular story is a French fairy tale (Le Chat Botté) and is about a cat who works on behalf of his master to win the hand of a princess. The story originally written in 1697 by Charles Perrault was written as a morality play to reinforce adult social standards rather than to amuse children. The story itself has been adapted several times over the years by the Grimm brothers, Walt Disney (1922 black and white version) and in most recent years in the Ladybird book format and of course included as a character in SHREK.

The story begins with the youngest son of the Miller inheriting a cat from his father's will, whilst his brothers receive the mill and the mules. This cat was unusual because it spoke and requested a pair of boots and a bag. It was determined to make sure that his master made his fortune. Through hard work, deception, approval of the King and killing an ogre on the way, his master marries the Princess. Whilst in the end the cat lives a life of luxury and only chases mice to keep her amused.

PANTOMIME SECRETARY GERAINT WEBB TAKES TIME OUT TO REFLECT ON APC'S POPULARITY OF PERFORMING 'PUSS IN BOOTS'

Did you know that Abergavenny Pantomime Company has performed the production of 'Puss in Boots' just four times over the last seventy nine years? As a pantomime subject, it can be seen that 'Puss in Boots' has become less popular and it is very rarely seen as a professional pantomime today.

The last time APC performed Puss in Boots was way back in 1988 and there are a couple of members who are still involved with the Company today, who performed in that 1988 production. The 1988 and the 2011 pantomime have many similarities and differences. The main similarity is that both productions were both based around the same story and also have very similar characters such as Puss, the Ogre, King and the Miller's three Sons. Another similarity, which we hope you agree with is that tickets prices continue to remain as low as possible. Admission prices in 1988 were £1 for children and senior citizens, excellent value as always. As a voluntary organisation we have to be inventive, creative and hard-working to enable us to continue to keep ticket prices as low as possible.

However one major difference is that the 1988 production concluded with a free-standing entertainment of slapstick comedy. Nowadays the slapstick is more or less incorporated into the main body of the show. Twenty three years on, the advent of the internet, mobile phones and iPods has done little to diminish Abergavenny Pantomime Company's ambition to entertain the local community. Next year in 2012 the Company will be 80 years old and we are already starting to plan for our 80th Anniversary Production. APC has survived by taking and expanding from the new ideas that each age has given, and we hope this gloriously eccentric British institution continues to do so. "Oh yes we do!"
